

Eastend, SK

SOUTHWEST WATERSHED DISTRICT ADVISORY COMMITTEE WORKSHOP

Explore how proactive land management can protect Saskatchewan's landscapes, agriculture, and communities. Learn how prescribed burning and FireSmart techniques can renew vegetation, improve pasture productivity, reduce wildfire risk, and support healthy ecosystems. The workshop will also highlight efforts to manage feral wild boar, an invasive species threatening Saskatchewan's environment and agriculture.

AGENDA

11:30 AM – Registration

12:00 PM – Lunch

1:00 PM – Feral Wild Boar Management in Saskatchewan:

Leanne Heisler – Wild Boar Program Coordinator,
West Region Saskatchewan Crop Insurance Corporation

1:30 PM – Managing the Cypress Hills Protection Area:

Sterling Switzer – Protection Officer Saskatchewan Public Safety Agency, Cypress Hills Protection Area

2:00 PM – Using Prescribed Fire to Improve Pasture Productivity:
(Presentation & field tour)

Renny Grilz, Director of Conservation, Meewasin Valley Authority and Managing Partner, Canadian Prairies Prescribed Fire Exchange, Saskatoon

$10 admission, lunch included!

SCAN TO REGISTER

For more information:

306-541-9902

September 29,
11:30 AM – 4 PM

Eastend Memorial Hall –
Tea Room, 135 Oak Ave N,
Eastend SK S0N 0T0